Old Business- none

New business

Online Safety Presentation – There is a presentation every year for the students, this year they opened the invite to the community. The presentation is October 29 at 9:00 a.m. in the gym.

Set Seg M Safe Award – Received a plaque and $1000

Custodian leave of absence- A motion was made by Dale Schneider, seconded by Gary Kivioja to accept Elizabeth O’Neal’s request. Motion carried 6-0. Julie VanDamme and Natasha Schuette have worked out a schedule to finish this year.

Reports

Superintendent/Principal- Eric stated we have 2 (non-functional) buses we need to get rid of. He said there were 3 options

- 1) A&L would give $1100 to $1200 for them. Would have to add $400 towing fee
- 2) Auction Site
- 3) Pete’s Pick & Pull would give $750 for each bus and will pick them up. We could get parts from them if needed.

Eric recommended 3rd option. It was board consensus to go with option 3.

On a personal note, Eric wanted to publically thank Mandy and Bay Vet animal clinic for the care they gave his puppy

Michael O’Neal report on the following for the teachers; End of Marking Period is November 1, Mrs. Barron is working on the Christmas Program and Robotics has started.

Athletic Director- JH Girls Basketball, Cross Country, Football and Volleyball are finishing up. Boys JH Basketball has started. Next year’s schedules are almost done.

Correspondence- none

Board Member Comments- Bob commented on the “Dig for a Cure” Pink out night at the Volleyball game. Over $4000 was raised, he was proud of the great community support.

A motion was made by Gary Kivioja, seconded by Delores Englund to adjourn at 4:22 p.m. Motion carried 6-0
